2019 Accessible Gift Guide

WWW.CEREBRALPALSYFOUNDATION.ORG
Hey Friends!

From our CPF family to yours,
Happy Holidays!

If you are looking for a great gift for someone with cerebral palsy or a related disability, we’ve got you covered with our 2019 Accessible Gift Guide. We’ve spent weeks picking out special gifts at a variety of price points for all ages and stages! Let our Accessible Gift Guide do the work for you, complete with the links to buy each gift directly. And we’re even more excited to let you know we’ve partnered with several of the awesome companies and products featured here for holiday gift giveaways in the days to come with our Holiday Giveaway countdown. Life with a disability can mean doing things a bit differently and finding creative solutions to everyday challenges. Sometimes, the best gift for a person with a disability is a useful one — something to make dressing, cooking or operating the electronics easier, but we also want to surprise and delight our loved ones and family members. Who needs a partridge in a pear tree when you can give one of these great gifts!

For the Young Book Lovers on Your List

Elementary School
“Zoom (My Little World)” by Jonathan Litton
Who will win this colorful race? Bright artwork, pages of finger-holes, and an exciting rhyming story make learning about colors fun!

“Hello Goodbye Dog” by Maria Gianferrari
For Zara’s dog, Moose, nothing is more important than being with her favorite girl. So when Zara has to go to school, WHOOSH, Moose escapes and rushes to her side. Unfortunately, dogs weren’t allowed at school and Moose has to go back home. Moose can’t be held back for long. Through a series of escalating escapes, this loyal dog always finds her way back to Zara, and with a little bit of training and one great idea, the two friends find a way to be together all day long.

For Middle School and Older
“Born Just Right” by Jordan Reeves
When Jordan Reeves was born without the bottom half of her left arm, the doctors reassured her parents that she was “born just right.” And she has been proving that doctor right ever since! With candor, humor, and heart, Jordan’s mother, helps Jordan tell her story about growing up in an able-bodied world and family. Whether it was changing people’s minds about her capabilities, trying all kinds of sports, or mentoring other kids, Jordan channeled negativity into a positive, and is determined to create more innovations for people just like her.

“Out of my Mind” by Sharon Draper
One of our very favorites! From award-winning author Sharon Draper comes a story that will forever change how we all look at anyone with a disability. Eleven-year-old Melody is not like most people. She can’t walk. She can’t talk. She can’t write. All because she has cerebral palsy. But she also has a photographic memory; she can remember every detail of everything she has ever experienced. She’s the smartest kid in her whole school, but NO ONE knows it. Melody refuses to be defined by her disability. And she’s determined to let everyone know it...somehow. Over 1.5 million people have read the #1 New York Times bestseller Out of My Mind and discovered the brilliant mind of Melody Brooks. Out of My Mind spent two years on the New York Times bestseller list!

“Roll with It” by Jamie Sumner
This big-hearted debut tells the story of an irrepressible girl with cerebral palsy whose life takes an unexpected turn when she moves to a new town. Ellie’s a girl who tells it like it is. That surprises some people, who see a kid in a wheelchair and think she’s going to be all sunshine and cuddles. The thing is, Ellie has big dreams: She might be eating Stouffer’s for dinner, but one day she’s going to be a professional baker. If she’s not writing fan letters to her favorite celebrity chefs, she’s practicing recipes on her well-meaning, if overworked, mother.
