Gift Guide

CEREBRAL
PALSY FOUNDATION

www.cerebralpalsyfoundation.org

Hey Friends!

From our CPF family to yours, Happy Holidays!

If you are looking for a great gift for someone with cerebral palsy or a related disability, we've got you covered with our 2021 Holiday Gift Guide. We've spent weeks picking out special gifts in all sorts of categories at a variety of price points for all ages and stages!

Let our Holiday Gift Guide help you find the perfect gift, complete with the links to buy each gift directly. Life with a disability can mean doing things a bit differently and finding creative solutions to everyday challenges. Sometimes, the best gift for a person with a disability is a useful one – something to make dressing, cooking or operating the electronics easier, but we also want to surprise and delight our loved ones and family members with things that are purely fun. Who needs a partridge in a pear tree when you can give one of these great gifts!

Let's find the

For the Young Book Lovers on Your List

Elementary School

“Zoom (My Little world)” by Jonathan Litton

Who will win this colorful race? Bright artwork, pages of finger-holes, and an exciting rhyming story make learning about colors fun!

“Hello Goodbye Dog” by Maria Gianferrari

For Zara's dog, Moose, nothing is more important than being with her favorite girl. So when Zara has to go to school, WHOOSH, Moose escapes and rushes to her side. Unfortunately, dogs weren't allowed at school and Moose has to go back home. Moose can't be held back for long. Through a series of escalating escapes, this loyal dog always finds her way back to Zara, and with a little bit of training and one great idea, the two friends find a way to be together all day long.

Middle School and Older

“Born Just Right” by Jen Lee Reeves and Jordan Reeves

When Jordan Reeves was born without the bottom half of her left arm, the doctors reassured her parents that she was “born just right.” And she has been proving that doctor right ever since! With candor, humor, and heart, Jordan's mother, helps Jordan tell her story about growing up in an able-bodied world and family. Whether it was changing people's minds about her capabilities, trying all kinds of sports, or mentoring other kids, Jordan channeled negativity into a positive, and is determined to create more innovations for people just like her.

“Out of My Heart” by Sharon Draper

Award-winning author Sharon Draper, resurrects Melody, the huge-hearted heroine of “Out of My Mind” who has cerebral palsy and who uses a communication device to speak. She is a year older, and a year braver. And now with her Medi-talker, she feels nothing's out of her reach, not even summer camp. There have to be camps for differently-abled kids like her, and she's going to sleuth one out. A place where she can trek through a forest, fly on a zip line, and even ride on a horse! A place where maybe she really can finally make a real friend, make her own decisions, and even do things on her own—the dream!

“Roll with It” by Jamie Sumner

This big-hearted debut tells the story of an irrepressible girl with cerebral palsy whose life takes an unexpected turn when she moves to a new town. Ellie's a girl who tells it like it is. That surprises some people, who see a kid in a wheelchair and think she's going to be all sunshine and cuddles. The thing is, Ellie has big dreams: She might be eating Stouffer's for dinner, but one day she's going to be a professional baker. If she's not writing fan letters to her favorite celebrity chefs, she's practicing recipes on her well-meaning, if overworked, mother.

For Book Lovers of any age...

Inspiration

"Pure Grit" by Lily Collison and Kara Buckley

Know someone who loves an inspiring story? Pure Grit has 19! In their new book, Authors Lily Collison and Kara Buckley share the stories of nineteen people from across the globe, ranging in age from twenty to seventy-plus, who are living and thriving in diverse fields – in sport, the arts, medicine, business and more. With refreshing frankness, they share their successes along with their struggles – grit is the one characteristic they all have in common.

These are not stories of people overcoming disability – they are stories of people accommodating disability while pursuing their dreams. Pure Grit shines a light on boundless possibility whatever the individual challenges.

Education

"Demystifying Disability: What to Know, What to Say, and How to Be an Ally"

by Emily Ladau

An approachable guide to being a thoughtful, informed ally to disabled people, with actionable steps for what to say and do (and what not to do) and how you can help make the world a more inclusive place.

Adventure

"The Impossible Mile: The Power of Living One Step at a Time" by Johnny Agar

An incredible story of Johnny Agar, born with cerebral palsy and whom doctors thought would never walk, overcoming the odds to compete in Ironman triathlons. Featured on ESPN, NBC Nightly News, The Today Show, and other media outlets, Johnny delivers a moving memoir that is a testament to the power of family, faith, and extraordinary courage.

Love

"Jabberwocky: Lessons of Love from a Boy Who Never Spoke" by Dr. Steven Gardner

Camp Jabberwocky, as it is widely known, embraces the boy and his father and they become part of a passionate and zany extended family that will forever change how they see the world. As the years pass, Graham and his parents experience both surprising adventures and formidable challenges. Wherever they live and travel, they encounter people who are drawn to Graham. From widely different backgrounds, people want to be near him, to assist in his care and to laugh with him. To them, the person they uniformly cherish is nothing less than a living angel. Imagine living in a parallel universe where people open their hearts and minds to those who are different and nobody is left behind?
